Ronson will advise on how to decorate flats fashionably

Ronson Development Group is going to advise its customers and potential customers on how to decorate their flats. This will accompany the open house at the model apartment at Imaginarium II during the weekend of 7-8 March.

At the same time Ronson is organizing open days in another investment – Meridian. How to equip the flat ? What are new decorate trends ? For those and other questions Ronson's architect will answer. Immediate opportunities to get some interesting suggestions will be on the 7th and 8th of March from 10.00 to 2 p.m. in Imaginarium II model apartment on Tczewska 4/50 Street .

Moreover at the same time Ronson hold also open house in Meridian project on Chłodna Street in which only 5 apartment left on sale. For clients who are interested in buying finished apartment Ronson has fully furnished model apartment, which will be the last one sold.

"We see the chance to talk with the architect as a way to meet the needs of our current and potential customers," said Andrzej Gutowski, a board member and director of sales and marketing at Ronson Development Group. "We have done the same at earlier open house events, and so far it has always been a success. The profile of a modern developer doesn't mean just building and selling now. Active communication with customers is crucial. That is why we are holding open houses more and more often." - he adds
