

Date: 02.11.2009

Publication: Rzeczpospolita – Warsaw Real Estate Supplement

Title: New developings: Less building permits.

Journalist: -

Rzeczpospolita – Warsaw Real Estate Supplement / New developings: Less building permits

Rzeczpospolita reports based on ASM - Center for Research and Market Analysis, that 48.100 thousand apartments built by developers were granted an occupancy permit between January and August this year. In the same period of 2008 it was 39,200. The newspaper reminds readers that Ronson offered 412 apartments in 3Q 2009. On top of that, the company had 70 units in the pipeline in 3Q 2009. Ronson is motioned among the largest public developers such as: JW Construction, Dom Development, Polnord, and so on.